To Parents and Guardians of all Fifth Year Pupils

Dear Parents and Guardians,

As you are probably aware, the current Fifth Year are studying 'Journey's End' by R C Sherriff as their drama text for English Literature IGCSE. It is always very useful if candidates can see a set play produced and we have managed to find a touring production of 'Journey's End' at the Richmond Theatre on Wednesday 9 March. We hope that as many as possible of the Fifth Year will be able to attend this performance as it will be excellent revision of the play and will provide insights into the themes and characters that only a live performance can give.

We will all be having an early dinner at school at 5pm, and then travelling by coach to and from the theatre. The performance starts at 7.45pm and is likely to finish around 10pm, meaning we should be back at school at approximately 11.15pm.

The tickets are £10 for excellent seats in the Stalls and Dress Circle. The coach fare is £10 and supper has been arranged at a cost of £2. The over-all cost (£22) will be added to the school bill. Please let me know if you would prefer to make alternative arrangements for payment.

If you would like your child to attend the performance of 'Journey's End', please sign and return the attached slip to Mr Killingworth or your child's English teacher.

Yours sincerely
