8 September 2011

To Parents and Guardians of First Year Boys

Dear Parents and Guardians

I am writing to remind you of the U12 rugby training sessions that are planned for the next two Saturday's. The sessions have not only been put in place to develop the boys' skills but to also get our new recruits into the groove of Saturday school sport. Initially, all boys are expected to attend all rugby sessions. After half-term we will review this.

This Saturday the session will take place on Home Field (the field adjacent to the main school building). All boys should turn up in their rugby kit with their tracksuit over the top. The session will run from 9.00am to 10.30am. After the session I would like all of the boys to cross the road to watch the School's 1st XV play on Beeches Field against St Dunstan's College. The match kicks off at 10.30am and will finish at 11.45am. There will be tea and coffee available next to the pitch if any of you would also like to come and watch the game.

On Saturday I will ask Mr Patterson to give out some booklets called 'Rugby for Mums'. These were produced for parents of new boys by one of the school mums back in the nineties. While the title is rather sexist, the booklet does contain some useful info if you are new to the game of rugby.

On Saturday 17 September we have a school Open Morning. The School has requested that First Year boys be available to give prospective parents tours of the School up until 11.00am. For this reason, the session planned for this day will now start at 11.00am and will finish at 12.30pm.

Finally, on Saturday 24 September the U12A Cubs were due to play Worth School. I have had a message from Worth that they are struggling to raise an U12A team this term (scared perhaps?). If the fixture does not take place, there will be an additional training session on that Saturday morning.

I look forward to meeting you soon.

Yours sincerely,

Rob Clarke
