Dear Parents and Guardians,

On Monday 4 July 2011, the Religious Studies Department has organised a trip for the Third Year students to visit the city of Canterbury. Canterbury is the historic spiritual centre of England and our trip will include a visit to the Cathedral.

As the students will be representing the School on the visit to these important religious sites they are expected to dress in respectable casual clothing.

We will be leaving from the front of School at 9:00 am following the morning assembly and returning to school by 4:00 pm.

The School will provide a packed lunch. Please indicate any special dietary requirements on the consent form, which should be returned by Monday 13 June. Your son or daughter may want to bring a small amount of pocket money.

Yours sincerely,
