To Parents and Guardians of Pupils Participating in the Westminster Abbey Service

Dear Parents and Guardians,

As you are no doubt aware, your son or daughter has been asked to participate in our Bicentenary service of celebration at Westminster Abbey as a chorister, a dancer, a reader, a banner bearer or a performer in one of the playlets. The service promises to be a magnificent occasion and we have had an overwhelmingly positive response in terms of ticket applications. The Abbey authorities have contacted us recently to allocate us a rehearsal slot which will be essential for the smooth running of the service on the Thursday.

The rehearsal will take place at the Abbey on Tuesday 18 October between 6.00pm and 9.00pm. To that end, I have booked 3 coaches to take us up to London and we will leave School as close to 4.00pm as possible. A packed tea will be provided for your son or daughter and we anticipate returning to School at approximately 10.30pm.

Apologies for the late notice with this – but we have only just had all the relevant details confirmed to us.

Thank you for your support.

Yours sincerely
