

CATERHAM SCHOOL

Caterham School Hockey 1st XI reach the semi finals of the National Plate Competition

Caterham School hockey 1st XI won their quarter final match of the national plate competition on 25 March winning convincingly 7-0 against Merchant Taylors' School. Upper Sixth Form student Ed Chatfield scored another hat trick. The team are now in the semi-final on the 22 April which will be held at the Lee Valley Hockey & Tennis Centre on Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park.

Caterham School Head of Hockey, Andrew Patterson, said: 'I am delighted for the team. This was a very tough match but they played so well together and managed to remain focussed throughout.'

Back row left to right: Dan Ellis, Alex Pearce, Ben Cowlard, Ed Chatfield, Cameron Lagerberg, Sam Murphy, Angus Whitfield, Dan Castle, Andrew Patterson (coach)
Front row left to right: Toby Goddard, Rory Walton, James Willmott, Harry Hanford, Dan Worthington, Ross Powell, James Foggin.