

CATERHAM SCHOOL

Twenty Caterham School pupils have been selected for Surrey County Lacrosse teams.

The pupils took part in the recent Surrey schools lacrosse trials with other girls from across the county. These were the final trials and in the U15 age group there were 80 players whilst there were 50 in U18 group.

The girls selected are:

U18 A – Libby Lewis, Katie Starns, Chloe Wyner

U18B – Ria Acharya, Harriet Sweet, Lauren Hunt-Williams, Aislinn Flatley

U18 Reserves – Katie Davies, Katie Herbert, Milly Tocher

U15A – Dani Foster, Emily Thompson, Jessie Hayes, Anna Simonova

U15B – Hannah Owen, Elise Knowles-Cutler, Abigail Barrett

U15 Reserves – Holly Mead, Katia Auletta, Kaitlyn Galvin

The first match will be on November 9 in the tournament against the other Southern counties.

Caterham School Head of Lacrosse, Miss Katie McHugh, said: 'I am delighted for all the girls. Surrey is one of the strongest lacrosse counties so they have done really well to be selected and continue the strong lacrosse tradition at Caterham.'
