

SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY XMAS XWORD

Set by Cerberus

Across

7. Where calculus began is unknown after the French crazy bin 'Introduction to Integration' (7)
8. Polish pooch? This breed's British (7)
10. Bankers doctor invested capital (6)
11. No run, including single, after flick – perhaps it's the third man? (4,4)
12. City halfway between India and Quebec (4)
13. They dig up old wine and gold in case of treasures (10)
14. Promotion of the best men distressed my erratic CO (11)
19. Supporter uttered extremely large numbers of South Americans (10)
22. Loose woman spotted in first Turner painting (4)
23. Pink type burning with love (8)
24. Beer made from everything dipped in whisky and uncorked fizz (6)
25. Skilful consumption of French, here, results in shortfall (7)
26. Picasso, say, indicated by "ouch", then initial indication of hesitation (7)

Down

1. Opening book provides information, English, and shelter for one in ship (7)
2. Give up on new acid beat (8)
3. One adorned with a grin is as happy as Larry? (6)
4. Bird I've initially rehomed is swift island hopper (8)
5. Sow with kernel of seeds to generate earth? (6)
6. Fiction penned by Utopian French writer (7)
9. A disco fan and two of a trio made unlikely lovers (11)
15. Fifty-one turn up for cooked sirloin right away – the state that is left behind! (8)
16. English and Latinic? Unusual for a Roman politician! (8)
17. Charge with right key? No start for cart (7)
18. Traitor tips 00 agent, retreating soldier (7)
20. Country unknown: initially area must be investigated accurately (6)
21. Inquiry from a tailor on the phone – big deal (2,4)